Firstsource Debuts on Dow Jones Sustainability Index with a 96th Percentile Rating

Mumbai, India | February 01, 2024: Firstsource Solutions Limited (NSE: FSL, BSE:532809), a global provider of Business Process Management (BPM) services and an RP-Sanjiv Goenka Group company, has been ranked in the top 96th percentile on the Dow Jones Sustainability Index, in its first year of participation. The rating comes with an impressive CSA and ESG score of 62 (as of January 23, 2024).

The Dow Jones Sustainability Index is a globally recognized benchmark that assesses a company's performance on various ESG dimensions. Companies listed in the DJSI are considered leaders in sustainable business practices, and the index is widely used by investors, stakeholders, and customers to evaluate a company's long-term sustainability and ethical behavior.

Ritesh Idnani, MD & CEO, Firstsource shared, "This recognition, within two years of setting out on our ESG journey, is a result of the passionate dedication of our teams. We understand, deeply, that in today's interconnected world, prioritizing ESG is not just a moral imperative but a strategic necessity for companies aspiring to thrive amid evolving global challenges. Achieving a high ranking in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index not only reflects our past successes but also sets a strong example for the future. We are determined to continue improving, aiming for excellence in sustainability, and contributing meaningfully to a more responsible global business environment."

Being included in the DJSI is a significant milestone and a moment of pride for Firstsource that reflects their dedication to operating responsibly and sustainably. This recognition also sets it apart from its competitors and reinforces its commitment to making a positive impact.
