- Continues to show good growth momentum with new processes and businesses being added
- Large scale ramp-ups have impacted profitability in Q3.
   Focus is on stabilizing the operations

International clients

 Starting to see good momentum with most large customers projecting increased volume for the next year

BFSI – An Overview

Broad Service Offering and Segments

Revenue contributed

23% of income from services (Q3 FY09)

Q3 FY2009 Highlights

- One Collection process ramp down
- Witnessed continued stress on liquidation rates and pressure on profitability in Collections business
  - Profitability impact was more prominent as Q3 is traditionally a weaker quarter for Collections business due to lesser number of business days and holiday season
- Witnessed some volumes fluctuations in non-collection BFSI business

Current trend and outlook

- Deal flow from BFSI sector continues to be sluggish, though starting to see some new segment of work in the US
  - Check processing
  - · Healthcare payment processing on behalf of banks
- Increasing unemployment levels in US is a concern for collections business
  - Situation is extreme and beyond what we've seen in past cycles making it difficult to predict the relationship between unemployment and collection liquidation rate
  - Don't expect a strong recovery until US employment scene recovers

Business Outlook

Expected changes from Q3

- Performance would recover in the next quarter backed by
  - Completion of large scale ramps in domestic business
  - Improvement in Collections profitability on account of higher liquidation rates due to tax seasonality

Growth in existing business – expect two major deal closures

- Additional service line with an existing telecom client, annual contract value of $4 million. To ramp up in Q1 FY10
- Additional onshore process with an existing telecom client, annual contract value of $5 million. To ramp up in Q4 FY09

Expanding delivery footprint

Planning two more delivery centers in India in Q4 FY09 – Bhopal and Coimbatore

Revenue outlook for FY09

Maintaining 32% revenue growth guidance in rupee terms

Margins for FY09

- Operating EBIT forecast was 10% 10.5% for the year.
- H1 FY09 operating EBIT margins were at 9.8%.
- Significant onetime and ramp up costs in Q3 has impacted YTD FY09 margins.
- Expect bounce back in Q4 but will not reach target levels due to:
  - Domestic business still in ramp / stabilization phase
  - Continued stress in Collections
