CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

VISION AND GOALS

Corporate social responsibility (CSR) lies at the core of everything we do. Firstsource is committed to advancing its CSR objectives through its overarching vision: “Create a nurturing and an empowering environment to deepen our societal engagement with a goal of improving lives and livelihood of communities on a sustainable basis.”

Our goal is to be a purpose driven and socially responsible company – aligning with RPSG group’s vision of empowering lives by providing access to education, environment and healthcare, promoting sports, arts and culture, and supporting gender equality and women empowerment to improve the overall quality of life.

We are committed to helping our communities stay ahead of challenges by deploying the strength of our resources, people, and digital solutions to support CSR interventions around the world. Through our values and principles, we seek to create a positive impact in communities and foster growth in education, skill development, women empowerment, healthcare, and livelihood for the impoverished, and contribute to the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

There is a cohesive strategy behind all of these efforts, which includes initiatives like employee volunteering, project-based activity, training and education to prepare individuals for employability, and corporate social responsibility. We believe that community development is vital for responsible and sustainable growth. We collaborate with community partners to build long-term initiatives that have a lasting impact.

Our goal is to be a purpose driven and socially responsible company.

SUMMARY

COVID-19 led disruptions have been unprecedented and brought the world to a grinding halt, but the learnings that the crisis has brought to all of us are invaluable. We continue to tread on the path of realistic optimism and positive resilience, turning challenging times into new CSR opportunities and building bridges across geographical barriers.

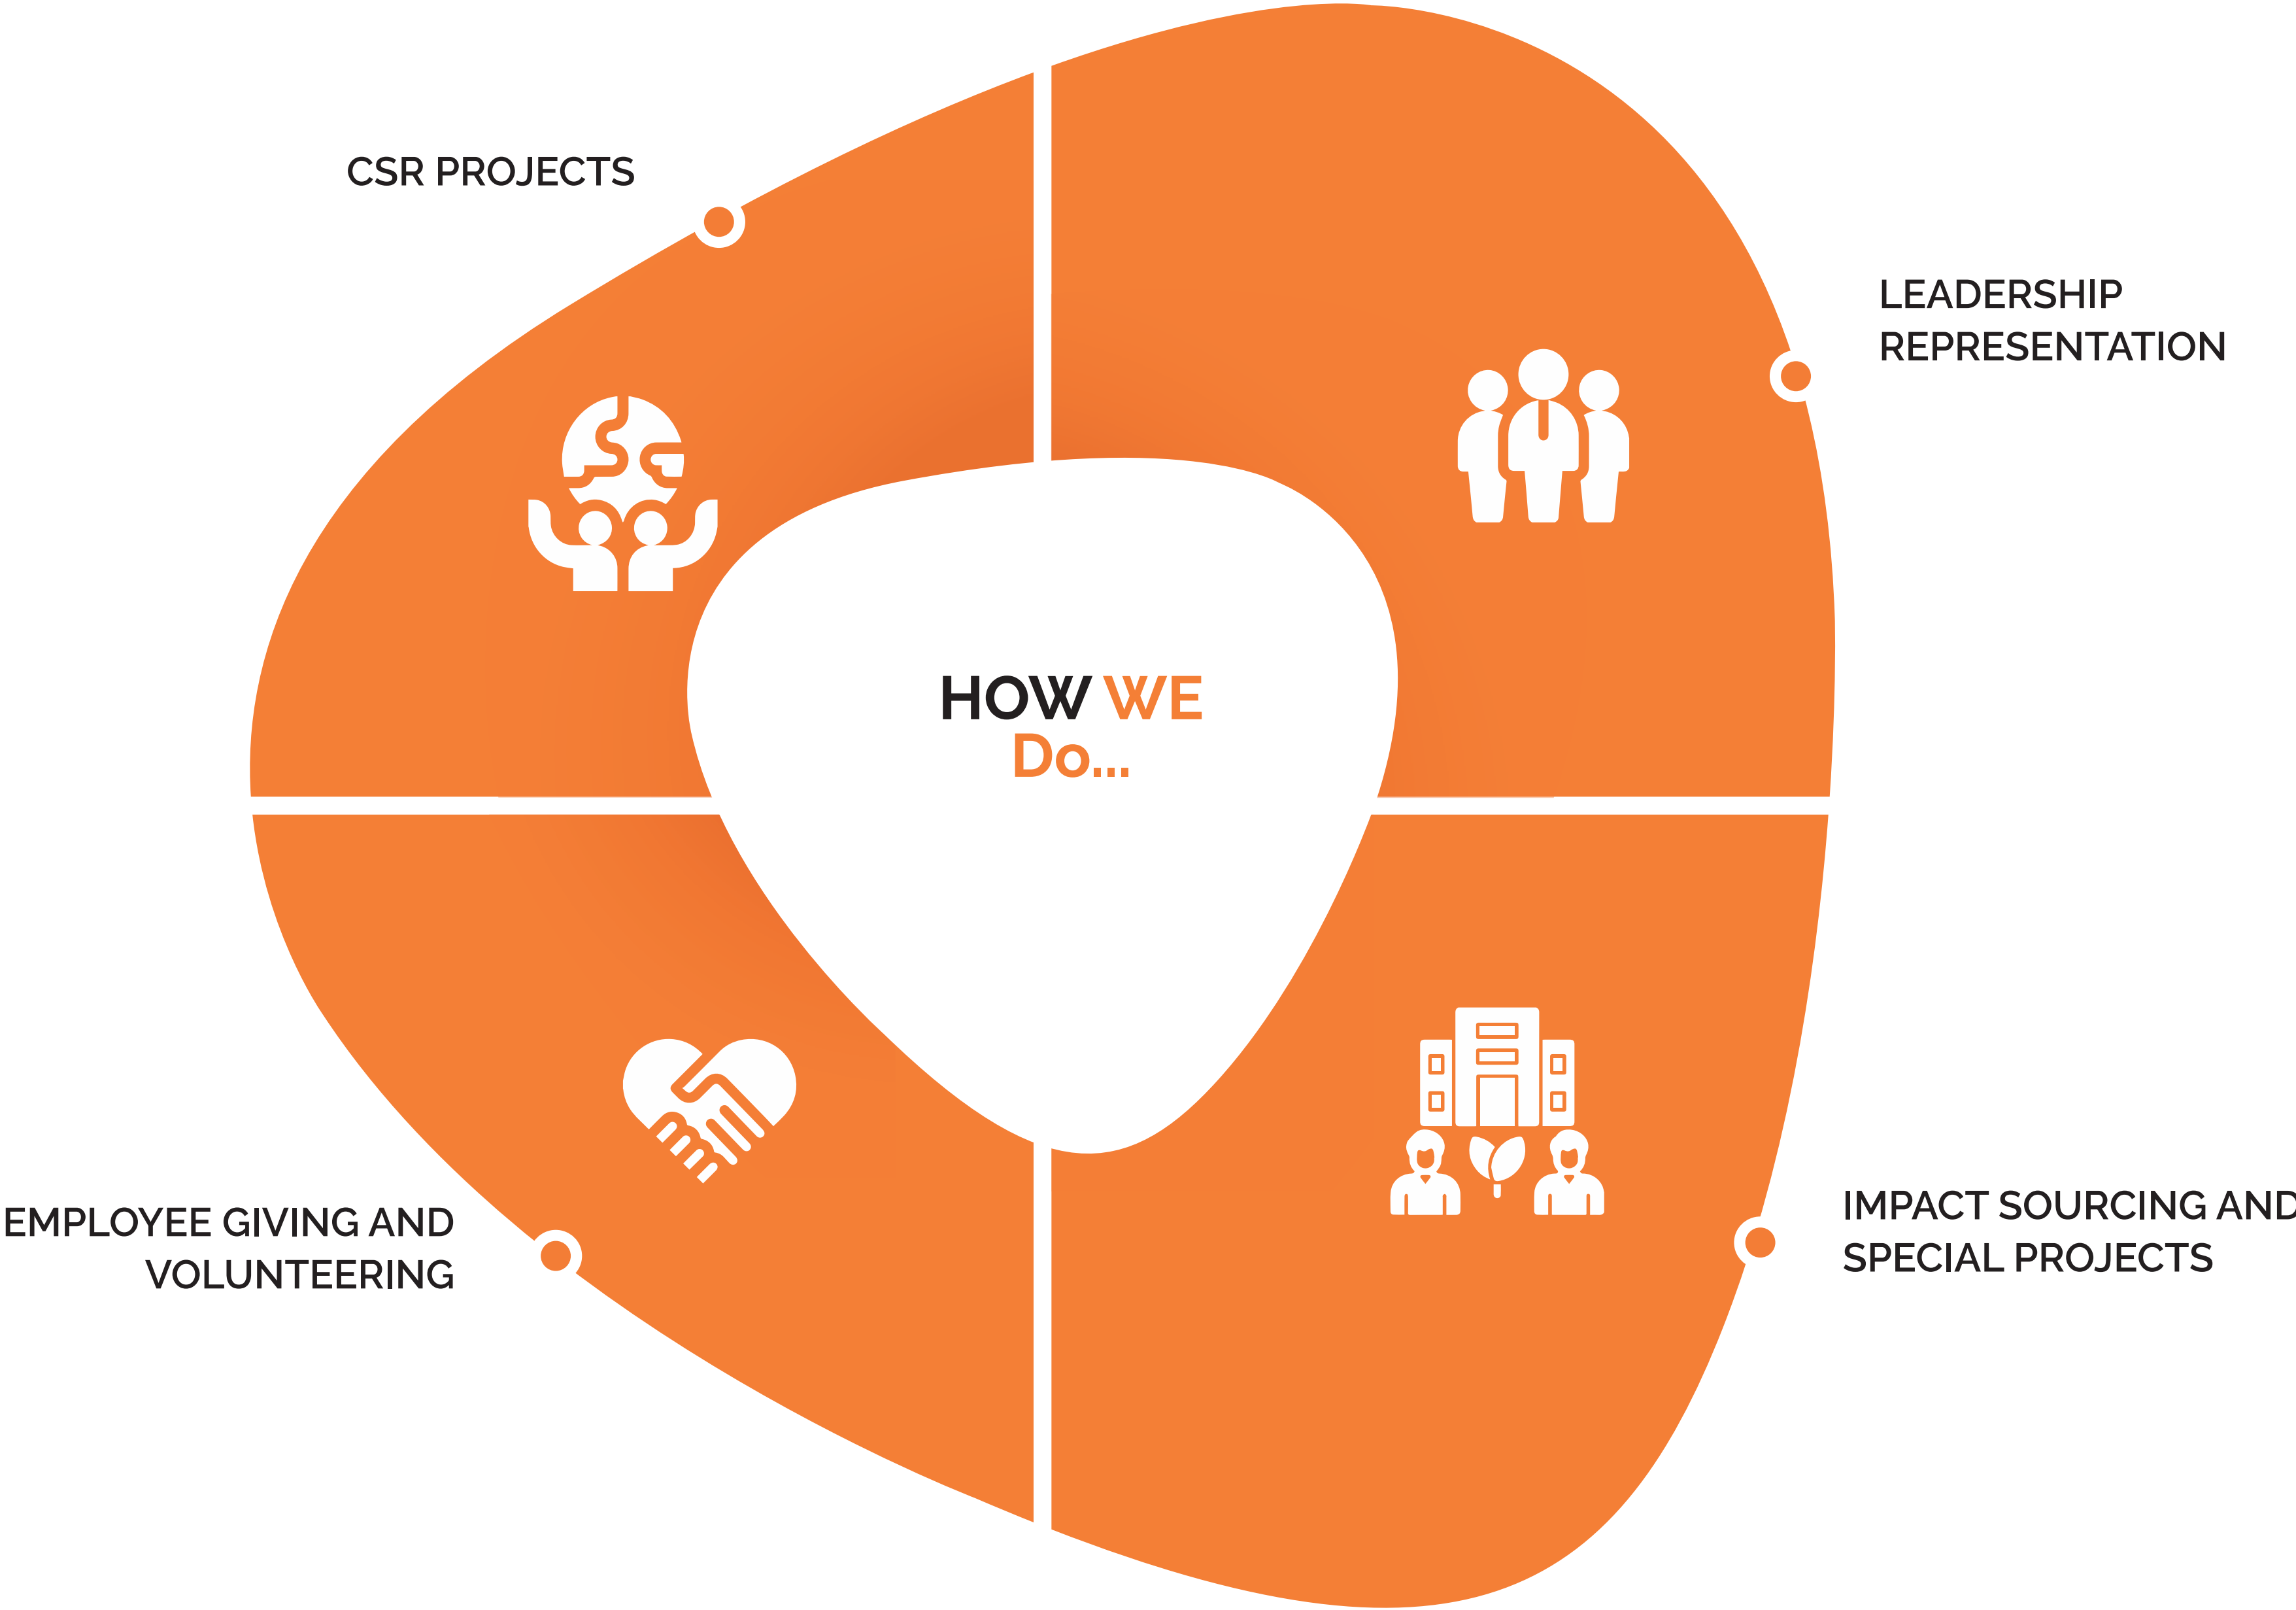

During these testing times, our CSR led interventions also created larger-than-expected impact on the ground level. Setting up mental health support groups, talking openly about PTSD, and stress, making masks, and volunteering to help in hot spot areas ensured a humane and empathetic response. We endeavored to make a meaningful and tangible difference in the lives of our people and the community alike.

Community outreach models

Through community outreach programs we allocate an annual budget to spend for communities which is implemented based on various thematic areas aligned with our group trust

CSR projects

Aligning with our organizational social purpose, we participate in projects through implementing partners and non-profits across Education, Environment, Healthcare, Gender Equality & Empowerment, Sports, and Arts & Culture.

Leadership representation

Our CSR initiatives are driven from the top with not only resources and design incentives for employees to promote sustainability initiatives but also strongly influencing organizational culture through their commitment by working on ground with local non-profit partners and providing pro bono services whenever required.

Impact sourcing and special projects

Providing meaningful employment opportunities for impact workers – people with otherwise limited job prospects through projects such as COVID-19 and RTE Helplines. Tied up with NGOs to support us in fulfilling job openings by reaching out to candidates from economically weaker/BPL families, PwD, and neglected communities.

Employee giving and volunteering

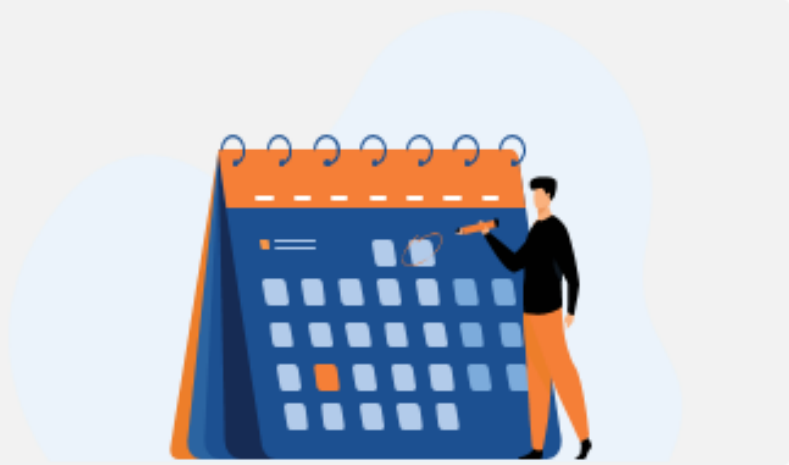

Firstsourcers contribute their donations, talent and time to various causes with team members across the globe doing tremendous work to help improve the communities where we live and work every day. Fundraising and employee volunteering are conducted by our CSR team through multiple platforms with support from business leaders, HR and other stakeholders within and outside the organization.

IMPACT SOURCING

Impact Sourcing is a business practice where a company prioritizes suppliers that intentionally hire and provide career development opportunities to people who otherwise have limited prospects for formal employment.

Firstsource promotes Impact Sourcing by including it as a criterion in our procurements RFPs and awarding points to suppliers who hire through Impact Sourcing. All other things equal, Impact Sourcing is a deciding factor for suppliers competing for business. Our suppliers currently engage over 2000 impact workers on behalf of Firstsource and maintain a scorecard in line with the Global Impact Sourcing Coalition (GISC) parameters which they submit to us periodically.

Earlier in 2021, Firstsource followed a traditional model of hiring through consultants. Later, the Talent Acquisition (TA) team in collaboration with the CSR function started working with non-profits and partners to provide socially responsible employment.

Collaborating with NGOs, sourcing partners and government organizations across Asia, the US and Europe we have created 4000+ opportunities for socially responsible employment and our goal is to hire 10,000 impact workers by 2025.

IMPACT SOURCING SUCCESS STORIES

During the second wave and third of COVID-19 in India, we received a customer support request from NASSCOM Foundation for a Bengaluru COVID-19 helpline run by Project STEPONE, a volunteer effort to boost government resources in the pandemic. As part of Impact Sourcing, our TA and CSR team onboarded a few LGBTQTIA+ candidates successfully who are supporting the operations for the Karnataka COVID19 Follow Up and Vaccination Helpline till today.

We received another similar request from our nonprofit partner Chennai Volunteers during the third wave. Similar to the Bengaluru batch, our Chennai TA and CSR team hired a few candidates from the LGBTQTIA+ community in collaboration with Tiruvallur Health Department officials.

Both helplines handled calls for over 7700 patients in two months, enabling the government to efficiently manage and reduce the spread of COVID19 in both regions. We take pride in harnessing the capabilities of these candidates wanting to make a mark, irrespective of their perceived disadvantages, and building a meaningful and mutually beneficial career with us.

EMPLOYEE STORIES

ORIEL
JONES

In a motive to support the homeless, Oriel Jones, CSA from Cardiff office in the UK, signed up for a walking challenge to raise donations for a Wales-based charity working to eradicate homelessness - Llamau. Oriel set out with the aim to walk the equivalent of Offa's Dyke, the famed 177 miles long-dyke built along the Anglo-Welsh borders around the 780s. However, she surpassed this target and walked an incredible 177.291 miles in just 28 days!

This kind action had a contagious effect on her colleagues in Cardiff office who not only cheered her for the efforts but also raised a fund of £105 for the same cause.

“I'm just very grateful for the support I've been given during the challenge and for everyone's donations. It was a lot of fun to do, and I am proud I was able to complete it.”

- Oriel Jones

EMPLOYEE STORIES

YESU
RAJAL

“As a genderqueer person, it feels great that people have started to accept me for who I am. I feel it is my responsibility to break stereotypes and build awareness about my community.”

Yesu Rajal works at Firstsource as part of a client team onboarded to help address the plight of COVID patients in the Bangalore and Tiruvallur districts during the pandemic.

But, he is also a well-known make-up artist who began working as a freelancer in 2014, shortly after receiving his diploma in hair and beauty. He rose to prominence by doing hair and makeup for South Indian celebrities, with the highlight of his career being hairstyling for legendary singer Dhee for the ‘Enjoy Enjami’ Tamil music video.

As a strong advocate for self-love, Yesu hopes to inspire others to break free from societal expectations and follow their life's purpose and passion. He recognizes that there is a need for better acceptance of male make-up artists in society and that discrimination against them is still prevalent based on their skin color, caste, religion, and gender.

Though this is his first corporate job, Yesu is loving the work, as well as the support and camaraderie of his coworkers, and helping us in creating a truly inclusive workplace.

COVID19-Helpline support

I would like to share my work feedback with the Thiruvallur Covid Project collaborated with FSL.

This was my first ever project where I got a space to save people's lives. In the beginning, it was quite difficult to handle the patients. But when the days passed, we learned how to communicate with each and every one in any situation. It was one of the greatest experiences in my life. I'm very glad and feel blessed that I was one of the people who saved many lives. This wouldn't be possible without the support received from our Thiruvallur Collectorate, Chennai Volunteers, and First Source. This is the only inclusive project which supported all the people from the LGBTQ+ community. I thank FSL wholeheartedly for this amazing opportunity. Means a lot.
